

Australian Apprenticeships NT Code of Conduct

(AAN-MQ001-20)

---

This form comes from the following procedure:

Information Pack Procedure

Sign up Procedure

1 Who is the Code for?

This code applies to all Australian Apprenticeships Networks and their staff and represents the minimum standards to be applied in all their dealings with clients including Employers, Australian Apprentices and other interested persons.

2 The Aim of the Code

The aim of the Code is to ensure the delivery of high quality support services with high standards of ethical behaviour exhibited to all parties concerned.

3 The Code of Conduct

Australian Apprenticeships NT will provide:

- accurate, current, impartial and comprehensive information to employers, Australian Apprentices and other interested persons on:
  - training products and delivery options appropriate to the needs of employers, particularly nationally endorsed Training Packages as they become available in each industry,
  - their rights and obligations under Training Contracts e.g. employers' requirements to release Australian Apprentices to attend the off-the-job training components of training packages or Australian Apprentices' obligations to attend work including off-the-job training,
  - Australian Apprenticeships Incentives and Allowances, Travel and Accommodation Grants, Northern Territory Employer Incentives Scheme and 'Workwear/Workgear' Bonus,
  - the operation of User Choice and the services available from Registered Training Organisations in the region,
  - flexible training delivery including school to work arrangements, and
  - industrial relations matters which may include referral to appropriate industrial relations agencies or employer organisation;
- an ongoing point of contact for the duration of the Australian Apprenticeship to help ensure successful completion of Australian Apprenticeships;
- advertising and information material that identifies the requirements of Australian Apprenticeships and is consistent with all Australian and Northern Territory Government requirements and reflects truth, accuracy and good taste, and
- a process through which employers, Australian Apprentices and other interested persons can notify inadequacies, problems or other issues in the delivery of Australian Apprenticeships Support Services

In addition, Australian Apprenticeships NT will provide to the Australian Department of Education and Training and to the Northern Territory Department of Business - Employment and Training NT accurate and complete information in relation to claims for payment under contractual arrangements and the determining of eligibility for Australian Apprenticeships Incentives Programme payments and the Travel and Accommodation

Australian Apprenticeships NT Code of Conduct

(AAN-MQ001-20)

---

Grants Scheme. Australian Apprenticeships NT will comply with Australian Government fraud control and risk management requirements.

Australian Apprenticeships Networks will also work closely, cooperatively and openly with State and Territory Training Authorities and fully comply with State and Territory administrative and legislative requirements in relation to Australian Apprenticeships and the provision of information relating to their dealings with employers and Australian Apprentices.

Australian Apprenticeships Networks will fully participate in and support national arrangements for the promotion and growth of Australian Apprenticeships. In particular, they will reflect this in their dealings with employers, Australian Apprentices and other interested persons and organisations, including other Australian Apprenticeships Networks and Registered Training Organisations.

Australian Apprenticeships NT must:

- be open and honest at all times;
- be respectful and courteous in their dealings with all clients;
- inform clients of their rights, obligations and entitlements;
- ensure that provision of information is current, accurate, impartial and consistent;
- ensure that advice about training options, particularly National Training Packages, best reflects the training needs of the employer and Australian Apprentice;
- adhere to the Australian Apprenticeships Incentives Programmes Policy Guidelines and with the Australian Apprenticeships Support Services Operating Guidelines;
- refrain from making false or misleading statements to employers and Australian Apprentices in relation to eligibility for both Australian Government and Northern Territory Government Australian Apprenticeships Incentives;
- be easy to contact by telephone, facsimile and email during normal business hours as well as maintaining easily accessible premises;
- respond quickly and accurately to requests for information;
- treat and action complaints seriously and learn from them;
- comply with obligations under law, including the Northern Territory Employment and Training Act 2004, Privacy Act 1988, the Freedom of Information Act 1982 and the Trade Practices Act 1974;
- not seek or accept fees, benefits or advantages either directly or indirectly from employers, Australian Apprentices or other interested persons for services funded by the Australian and Northern Territory Governments;
- make available to any interested persons details of the controls and arrangements put in place to manage conflict of interest matters where such conflicts exist;
- maintain up-to-date knowledge in respect of all aspects of Australian Apprenticeships but particularly Training Packages available within industry sectors; and
- ensure that a positive reputation and outlook for Australian Apprenticeships is promoted to State and Territory Training Authorities, other key stake holders and the community.

4 Compliance with the Code

Australian Apprenticeships Networks are bound to the Code of Conduct through their contract with the Australian Government (Department of Education and Training) and Northern Territory Government (Department of Trade Business and Innovation). Australian Apprenticeships NT must display a copy of the Code and ensure clients including employers, Australian Apprentices and other interested persons are fully aware of it.